How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan, or a Tax-Free Savings Account. Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series FT6 securities of the Fund. The fees and expenses - including any commissions - can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

No sales charge is paid when you own Series FT6 units of the Fund.

2. Fund Expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the returns of the fund.

The series' annual management fee is 0.98% of the series' value. Because this series is new, its fund expenses are not yet available.

The fund may pay the Manager a performance fee equal to 10 percent of the amount by which the series of the fund's rate of return exceeds that of its benchmark subject to a maximum of 0.30 percent of the fund's average net asset value. The benchmark for the Fund is the Morningstar® Developed Markets Large-Mid Cap Index.

More about the trailing commission

No trailing commission is paid to your representative's firm when you own Series FT6 securities.

3. Other Fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Short-term trading fee	If you sell or switch securities within 30 days of purchase, you could pay a fee of 1.00% of the value of the securities you sell or switch. If we detect a pattern of excessive short-term trading, you could pay a fee of up to 2.00% of the value of securities you purchase, sell or switch within a 90-day period. This fee goes to the Fund.
Switch fee	Your representative's firm may charge you up to 2.00% of the value of securities you switch to another mutual fund managed by Starlight Capital. There is no fee payable to Starlight Capital for any switches of securities.
NSF cheque fee	We will charge you $30 if a payment for a purchase of units is returned by your bank for any reason.
Fee-based account fee	Generally, you must participate in an eligible fee-based or wrap program with your representative's firm to purchase this series. Your representative's firm may charge you a fee, which is negotiated between you and your representative's firm and paid directly to them.

What if I change my mind?

Under the securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you will also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form, Fund Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
